

Employer Services: Program Promotion

The second step toward creating a drug-free workplace is to promote your drug-free program to employees, labor representatives, business partners and others.

When your organization enrolls with Drug-Free WorkPlace Solutions, we provide you with a wide range of materials free of charge to help you promote your drug-free workplace to employees, your clients, and the public. In addition, we can advise you on how to regularly communicate positive, relevant messages to employees that keeps the focus on maintaining a drug-free workplace over time.

Some of the promotional items that Drug-Free WorkPlace Solutions provide include:

- Posters
- Payroll stuffers
- Window stickers
- Information for newsletters and e-newsletters
